

2014 saw us again spending time between UK, and Spain. Notable were our times spent with friends and family at different events and locations. For instance in March we attended the Ladies Festival at the Four Pillars in Oxford with Geri & Lennie, Trish & Tom and Nick & Sandie.

This annual event is organised by brother-in-law John Buckingham and is always a great weekend away, although we tend to enjoy it more when we go to Bournemouth. This is not to say that the Four Pillars wasn't a lovely hotel with lovely accommodation, good food and easy access to Oxford and the river Thames.
